hOw to create SEXY resume

99% of people lose their chances to get a job before they even typed one word in their CV.

WHY DOES IT HAPPENS LIKE THAT??

The reason is that such candidates don't take the time to find out what their future employers are looking for. The first thing you should do is to find out what your future/target employers are looking for candidates' CVs, so that you can then fill I. Tour cv with content that matches their needs and therefore impress them.

As you go through the adverts, make a list of the things that repeatedly appear. They will be the most sought after requirements. Before you start writing your cv, you might make an own list where you will include your skills (for ex. IT skills, written communication skills) and previous experience.

- Contact details (full name, address, mobile phone number, email address)
- Education (list and date all previous education, placing the most recent highest up the page, including every professional qualifications)
- Referees (2 people who can provide positive comments on your previous employment or experiences)
- Skills
- Work experience (internships, voluntary roles, previous job, from the most recent positions and examples of tasks)

WHAT ABOUT A PROFILE?

You don't need to add a personal profile but we are sure it will help your CV stand out. Just remember to place it at the beginning.

Improve your chances of impressing a potential employer by eliminating these mistakes from your Cv like:

- 1) including irrelevant personal information
- 2) lying or manipulation of the truth
- 3) hiding important information
- 4) unnecessarily elaborate design
- 5) remember about good grammar and not to make spelling mistakes
- 6) don't make your CV too long - slim down (ONE-MAX. 2 pages)

Would you like working in abroad? But you afraid of it? We show you an example, who made a decision and now he is working in another country. Let me see the interview with David Beckham.

We are very happy that you share your experiences with the Awesomeness readers. My first question is why did you decide you go abroad?

DB: When I was a child I travelled a lot abroad with my family. I very enjoyed this travelings because I saw a lot of interesting things and people. I am interested in different cultures all of the world, and I wanted to try how can I work in another country.

-So that's why you left the UK. Wasn't it difficult to go abroad?

DB: I think it depends on the individual's ability. For me it was easy, because I wanted to go abroad. I was 28 years old when I went to the Real Madrid FC from the Manchester United FC. My family supported me 100%. I met a lot of friends and when I was in a bad mood they always had cheered my up.

-What do you think about your team members?

+I think I got a good team, they accepted me in the beginning, so we could work together very good. It was very important because we were able to perform well and achieve good results.

-Why is it better to work in abroad?

+Because you can get to know many new people and you can learn some new things from each other. You can improve your social skills; you can develop in your job, because you can see some different way. You are open to new things and you can learn new languages.

What do you think about the disadvantages?

+My biggest disadvantage is that I am far from my family.

But I think if you work in abroad you have more advantages than disadvantages.

If you choose a good job, what you enjoy very well, I think your salary will be better also in abroad.

-What is your experience about your personal development?

+ My confidence is better than in the beginning and I learnt more patience with another people. My mind is opening to the new things and I think I can and like working in a team very well.

-Finally what is your message for the Awesomeness readers?

+ Don't afraid of the unknown things. Be brave and everything will be good! Just believe in yourself! Working abroad is not a ghost, just a possibility, which make you better. Don't be shy, be brave , dream big and work in another country.

Don't sit @ home , move Your ass & gain some experience abroad

So are you setting on Your lazy ass. Well Just be honest, have a life do something. You can travel around the World, voluteering, go to university or maybe get a Job.

First we have a talk about travelling.

Do youth want to go life free and go drink a lot. Just do some thing else different countries.

First you have to take some transport. You can buy extensieve ticket or if You are poor i have a tip for you . You can go to cheapflights site select Your country of were the f*ck you are. And you Find a cheap flight ore you alwas can do an other Way of travelling is voluteering.

In voluteering you have the change know other idiote or maybe you can Learn some New skiles. And That can maybe Help in Your useless life. If You want to check it out go to Europa.eu/youth/voluteering .

If You are smart you May can go to university.

You wil Learn New People and if You choise.

Make the richt you like the changes are bigger That you get a good Job. You will like it . And have more fun in Your life .without getting boring.

But if You cant study you can always. You Just have to Find work . You need money .

If You want That Job. You need to richt an good cv. And have a comfortabel interviews .so never stress out.

So now you know to use Your life useful. So stop being lazy and Just do it

Even, if you succeeded in high school doesn't mean you'll succeed in life. You can look at the most richest people in the world. Nobody had special education, so you should invent something like Mark Zuckerberg did with that sh...y network called "Facebook". Another thing is to not develop a taste for luxuries. "I'm serious!!!" Save this when you invent a new "Google" and then you can buy a Ferrari and crash it on the first tree you see near the road because you were so f..ked up from the last night.

The school is over... what's next?

Hello, high school graduate, did you finished your school and don't know what to do? Or maybe you just bought this magazine just for the cover.

But anyway, if you still reading this, it means it caught your attention. So, the million dollar question: "What next?"

Obviously you are starting to think what the f..k to do with your life, unless you won the lottery. Well, the first thing you would think after graduating is that most of what you've just learned in high school is completely useless and you will never use it again.

Next, I will say to you three simple rules that explains 99% of human behavior:

- 1. Most people don't think
- 2. Some people are just idiots
- 3. Everyone is selling something

Finally, my personal advice to you is: choose whatever the f..k you want, I don't care. The most important thing is just to follow the natural cicle of a human being on the Earth: eating, drinking, sh...ing, fu..ing, get a job, have some kids (if you want), retire and eventually you die and everybody forgets you.
